

Your Title Here

Your Name

September 11, 2026

Abstract

A one-paragraph summary of the problem, your approach, and the headline result.

1 Introduction

State the problem and why it matters. Cite prior work like this [1].

2 Method

Describe your approach. Reference sections with `\ref`, e.g. Section 2.

3 Results

Equations are first-class citizens:

$$e^{i\pi} + 1 = 0 \tag{1}$$

4 Conclusion

Wrap up and point to future work.

References

[1] Donald E. Knuth. “Literate Programming”. In: The Computer Journal 27.2 (1984), pp. 97–111.